MEMORANDUM

Pursuant to Local Civil Rule 7, Defendants the Honorable Bennie Thompson and the House Select Committee to Investigate the January 6th Attack on the United States Capitol (collectively, “the Select Committee”), by and through their counsel, respectfully move for this Court to conduct an in camera review of Plaintiff’s privilege claims with regard to a set of documents previously held in abeyance, and to rule on the validity of those claims.

On May 6, 2022, the Select Committee informed this Court (Dkt. 336) that it withdrew its objections to 721 documents, totaling approximately 13,929 pages, on Plaintiff’s consolidated privilege log, and requested in camera review of (coincidentally) 721 other documents, totaling approximately 2,945 pages. This Court subsequently reviewed in camera that set of documents, as further narrowed by Plaintiff’s production of a subset of the documents, and issued an order adjudicating Plaintiff’s privilege claims over those documents (Dkt. 356).

In its May 6 Notice (Dkt. 336), the Select Committee informed the Court that it was willing to hold in abeyance its objections to 576 documents, totaling approximately 3,236 pages, while reserving the right to request at a later date in camera review of the documents held in abeyance.

As the Select Committee reaches the final months of its tenure under its current authorizing resolution, it now respectfully seeks such in camera review so that it may complete its efforts, including preparation of the final report mandated by its authorizing resolution. See H. Res. 503, 117th Cong. § 4(a)(3) (2021).

The Select Committee believes that the legal issues underlying Plaintiff’s claims of attorney-client privilege or work product protection have largely, if not entirely, been determined by the Court’s previous Orders (Dkt. 260 and 356). However, should Plaintiff believe that additional briefing is necessary, and should this Court agree, the Select Committee respectfully requests that the Court set an expedited briefing schedule

1 in light of the limited time remaining for the Select Committee to complete its work
2 before January 3, 2023, the date on which the 117th Congress ends. Thus, the Select 3 Committee proposes the following briefing schedule:

4 Monday, September 26, 2022: Plaintiff’s opening brief

5 Monday, October 3, 2022: Select Committee’s response brief

6 Wednesday, October 5, 2022: Plaintiff’s reply brief

7 Pursuant to Local Civil Rule 7-3, counsel for the Select Committee conferred with 8 Plaintiff’s counsel regarding the filing of this motion via email on August 4. Plaintiff’s 9 counsel responded the following day that he would re-review the relevant documents and 10 get back to the Select Committee’s counsel. On Friday, August 26, having received no 11 further response, counsel for the Select Committee informed Plaintiff’s counsel that the 12 Select Committee would file the motion on Monday, August 29. On August 29, 13 Plaintiff’s counsel made a “partial production” consisting of four documents, 14 accompanied by a spreadsheet that listed an additional 212 documents over which 15 Plaintiff continued to assert privilege, all of which were dated December 18, 2020 or 16 earlier. The same day, counsel for the Select Committee (1) asked Plaintiff’s counsel for 17 a further explanation of Plaintiff’s continued privilege claims—specifically, to clarify 18 whether, for documents that Plaintiff described as “part of a chain” the Court has 19 reviewed, the Court has reviewed and ruled on the content of the specific emails
20 referenced—and (2) asked when Plaintiff would report on the 360 remaining abeyance
21 documents. On September 13, in response to a follow-up query, Plaintiff’s counsel 22 essentially answered the first question in the negative and did not address the second 23 question.<sup>1</sup>

25 _____
26 <sup>1</sup> Specifically, Plaintiff’s counsel answered the first question as follows: “Some of the 27 documents that remain in abeyance are in the same chain and on the same topic that the 28 Judge has already ruled to be privileged. Other times, earlier parts of the thread that were specifically included in emails Judge Carter previously ruled for the privilege. And

1 In light of this exchange over the past month or so, it seems clear that further 2 consultation with Plaintiff's counsel will not result in the Select Committee receiving the 3 material that it seeks in a timely manner. Accordingly, the Select Committee now moves
4 for this Court to review and rule on Plaintiff's claims of privilege for the remaining 572 5 documents.
